Created content helps bring cohesiveness to the pathway and focus energy.

A variety of media types from internal and external sources enhances engagement and validity.

Incorporating past trainings helps activate prior knowledge and draw connections.

Guided reflections help make it personal and actionable while also supporting deeper thinking.

Reflect

- How has this pathway helped you adjust the way you think about change management?
- What practices and considerations from this pathway will you incorporate into your practice?
- The next time that you need to navigate change, how will you ensure you lead through change?
